Straight Pen-Style Air Blower

Reference : OP 0099

Item name	Straight Pen-Style Air Blower
Bar code	3700461428500
Introduction	Gain in agility with the OP 0099, the ultra-compact pen-sized blowgun, ideal for instant cleaning of confined areas. A robust, lightweight precision tool designed to support technicians in all their diagnostic and maintenance tasks.
Text	The OP 0099 meets the need for "targeted cleaning" in the workshop, where standard blowguns are too bulky or too powerful for fragile components. Ergonomic "Pen-Style" format: its slim design allows for a natural grip and easy storage in a pocket or hand-held organizer. Directional Flux Diffusion: Perfect for cleaning electrical connectors, blowing residues out of spark plug wells or dusting sensitive electronic components. Rotation activation: Simple, reliable triggering system by rotating the head, enabling precise dosage of air flow without trigger effort. Robustness Aluminum: High-strength anodized aluminum body, guaranteeing durability against drops and excellent resistance to hydrocarbons present in Engine environments. Practical: Equipped with a sturdy mounting clip and a standard 1/4" connection, it integrates immediately into your compressed air network.
